

Tim's Classic Christmas Letter Club

YES, please enroll me in the TCCL Club under the terms of this offer. If I am not satisfied with my 2 FREE introductory selections or my membership terms by the end of 4 minutes, I may return the letters without further obligation. Should I decide to keep them, I agree to buy and read 735 selections at the regular TCCL Club price ($5.00 plus $73.00 gratuity and handling...you'll waive the shipping charge for the first 29 orders) within 7 years. I will then receive my choice of another 9 Classic Christmas Letters for $132. That's 8 selections for the price of 14 with just a few more to buy. A shipping, handling, and gratuity charge is added several times to each selection. Better yet, enroll me in your LTMTCCLC (Life Time Membership to Tim's Classic Christmas Letter Club). I agree to simply sign over my paycheck to you for the rest of my life and you will supply me with your annual literary classic along with enough white bread and bottled water to keep me alive.

(Don't bother to do the math. Save potential aggravation, just trust us.)

BONUS OFFER

HEY, I'm too stupid to know when to quit. Send this extra one to me at the nominal price of $3.00 (plus $87.00 gratuity):

Choose from this admittedly short list of Christmas letters:

- 1 1991: *Assemble Your Own Christmas Letter. Remember this one? Some of you actually tried to put the shredded paper back together again. Ha!, It was really old printouts from work. Here's your chance to be fooled again.
- 2 1992: *Recycled (Ecologically friendly) Christmas Letter. Order this one and we'll kill some more trees to make the paper to print it on.
- 3 1993: *Virtual Reality Christmas Letter. You won't actually receive anything when you order this one. Just imagine you did while we cash your check.
- 4 1994: *Top Nine Christmas Letter. A cheap takeoff on Letterman's Top 10 List. Careful with this one, kids. It was so pathetic that it was displayed on the bulletin board of a restaurant (that term used loosely), causing the author untold humiliation.
- 5 1995: *TCCLC Christmas Letter. Hey, if you're dumb enough to pay for this letter when you are holding it in your hands, we're not too proud to take your stinkin money.
- 6 1996: *TBD Christmas Letter. This is one for all of you who ordered number 5.

We reserve the right to request additional information, reject any application, or cancel any membership. Offer null and void if intelligence is detected.

What is TCCLC and Why Should I Join?

- ◆ TCCLC stands for Tim's Classic Christmas Letter Club.
- ◆ Over the years, Tim (our founder) has written numerous Christmas letters. Some say far too many.
- ◆ To date, Tim has not profited one red cent from writing and distributing these letters. In fact, he has incurred a rather significant debt in his quest to keep his relatives informed as to his family's whereabouts and whatabouts.
- ◆ It's high time Tim started to make a buck off this stuff.
- ◆ Join because some of the money you send in may be tax deductible (please call 305-364-6468 for details....ask for Guido).
- ◆ Be the first to join and become eligible to receive the Windows 95 compatible version as soon as it is available. Look for the Plug and Play version late third quarter.
